Yingli Green Energy Holding Company Limited
Conflict Minerals Policy

Yingli Green Energy Holding Company Limited ("Yingli") recognized the potential risks of significant adverse impacts which may be associated with the use of the minerals from the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) or adjoining countries ("covered countries"). Yingli fully supports the objectives of the Section 1502 ("Section 1502") of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act ("the Act"), which requires the disclosure of its use of "conflict minerals". "Conflict minerals" include cassiterite (i.e. tin), columbite-tantalite (i.e. tantalum), gold, wolframite (i.e. tungsten), or their derivatives, and any other minerals or their derivatives determined in applicable laws and regulations.

Yingli is committed to the responsible sourcing of "conflict minerals", such that the "conflict minerals" do not directly or indirectly finance or benefit armed groups in the "covered countries". Yingli is committed to comply with the obligations as required under the Section 1502 of the Act, as well as the related rules and regulations issued by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Yingli encourages its suppliers to better understand their use of the "conflict minerals", and Yingli is committed to work with its suppliers to ensure responsible sourcing of the "conflict minerals". Suppliers are expected to communicate with their suppliers regarding the subject, and track the source the "conflict minerals".

If the components supplied to Yingli contain no "conflict minerals", suppliers should provide evidences or declarations specifically regarding this matter. If the components supplied to Yingli do contain "conflict minerals", suppliers should provide supporting documents on the source of "conflict minerals". In either case, suppliers are expected to respond with appropriate actions in Yingli’s due diligence efforts regarding the source of "conflict minerals".

Yingli will evaluate its relationships with its suppliers on an ongoing basis to ensure continued compliance with this policy. As such, Yingli will require its suppliers to agree and follow the requirements laid out in this policy. If a supplier refuses to cooperate or fails to meet the reasonable requirements requested by Yingli, Yingli may suspend its relationship with the supplier.
